DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-20, drawn to a rocket, classified in class 244, subclass 160.
 - II. Claim 21-22, drawn to a rocket system, classified in class 244, subclass 162.
 - III. Claims 23-25, drawn to a method of entertaining, classified in class 244, subclass 1R.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions III and (I and II) are related as process and apparatus for its practice.

The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the apparatus of I and II may be used in the different process of space exploration.

3. After the above, if the apparatus has been chosen, the applicant must further choose from the following.

4. Inventions II and I are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the combination does not require a fuel tank that is connected with the combustor to form hot product gas. The subcombination has separate utility such as a missile or weapon.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Once one of the above has been chosen, the following species election must be made and a single species elected for prosecution.

7. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

- a. Species A: the craft having a shock absorber between the engine and accommodations (from claim 13 and part ii from claim 21)
- b. Species B: minimum distance between accommodations and working medium tank is 10 feet (from claim 14 and part iii from claim 21)

- c. Species C: working medium tank configured to burst in a predictable manner (from claim 15 and part iv from claim 21)
- d. Species D: working medium tank constructed of paper (from claim 17 and part v from claim 21)
- e. Species E: working medium tank constructed of plastic (from claim 17 and part v from claim 21)
- f. Species F: working medium tank is configured to contain a pressure at least 3 times greater than the high pressure of the high-energy working medium (from claim 16 and part i from claim 21)

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claim is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Timothy D. Collins whose telephone number is 571-272-6886. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F, 7:00-3:00, with every other Fri. off.
